"The world's best-known English Country Dance Band"

SAM BARTLETT

(IN) is a rabid, irrepressible mandolin, banjo, and guitar player, known to dancers across the country for his fine musicianship and philosophy of Stuntology.

Jacqueline Schwab

(MA) dance leader, choreographer, reconstructor brings her deep love and knowledge of English dance back to Fall Weekend!

GRAHAM BALDWIN

(BC, Canada), squire of Vancouver Morris Men, teaches border, molly, and Cotswold.

Joseph Pimentel

(OH) calls English country dance, contras, and squares with a combination of clear teaching, youthful perspective, and respect for tradition.

Kevin Carr's

(OR) powerful fiddling forms the backbone of the Hillbillies from Mars' French-Canadian and Irish repertoire.

Tom Hinds

(VA) has called New England, old-time, traditional western, and modern western dancing for over 20 years and has published numerous books of his squares and contras.

Larry Unger

(MA) plays guitar, banjo, bass, and piano among other instruments, is interested in old-time and blues as well as contra dance music, and has written well over 600 tunes.

SYLVIA HEROLD

(Cats & Jammers, Wake the Dead) leads campers in singing folk and American standards.
