Thirty years after its first camp at the Mendocino Woodlands in 1981, the Bay Area Country Dance Society continues the long tradition of American Dance and Music Week at a new location. Join us as we continue the evolution of our folk tradition at the Jones Gulch YMCA Camp in La Honda, California (near San Francisco), less than one hour's drive from both San Francisco and San Jose airports, conveniently near Palo Alto to the east and the scenic California coast to the west.

Built in the 1930's on the site of an old lumber camp, and recently renovated, the camp features heated dormitory-style cabins (with electricity!) nestled in the redwood forest with modern bathrooms and showers. Meals are prepared by culinary institute-trained chef and staff. Well-maintained and well-lit trails connect the clusters of cabins, dance lodge, and dining hall. The buildings and forest provide many nooks and niches for jamming, chatting, reading and relaxing.

Returning Program Director Laura Light has assembled an outstanding collection of teachers and musicians for the uniquely wondrous experience that is dance camp. Our staff represent a wide variety of styles, and bring their experience and expertise to create amazing opportunities for enrichment and enjoyment.

Special dances and events featuring camp staff are scheduled both before and after camp. Come early before camp, and stay longer after camp, for an extra dose of fun!

The organizers and staff of American Dance and Music Week invite you to share great food, laughter galore, amazing stories and songs, and top-notch dancing and music. We have the ingredients to create some of your future favorite memories.
