

Dance Tuesday night away at a special Couple Dance Party!

in Berkeley October 11

music by Mary Lea and Jacqueline Schwab

An evening of (mostly) waltzes, tango waltzes, and other traditional couple dances, with just a few prompted sequence dances and mixers, in an intimate, acoustic setting.

When: Tuesday, October 11, 2005, workshop at 7:30, dance 8:00 – 10:00

Where: St. Clement's Episcopal Church

2837 Claremont (off Ashby), Berkeley, CA

Price: $12

A pre-dance workshop at 7:30 with Lise Dyckman and Alan Winston will cover tango waltz variations and the Gypsy Wine sequence dance

Mary Lea (fiddle) and Jacqueline Schwab [piano] are founding members of Bare Necessities, and have recorded frequently. Mary's couple-dance recordings, Cascade of Tears and Gypsy Wine helped to popularize the tango waltz in North America. Jacqueline has several solo CDs and is heard on the soundtracks for many documentary films, including The Civil War

Longtime collaborators on dance music, their tight communication and free-flowing improvisations make a gorgeous, danceable sound you shouldn't miss.

Questions: bacds@bacds.org More info: bacds.org/WaltzParty

This event presented by the Bay Area Country Dance Society, www.bacds.org