Caller, choreographer, and long-time BACDS organizer Alan Winston is turning 60 this year. Alan is celebrating by sponsoring a ball featuring dances he's written to tunes by various composers, including Larry Unger, Debbie Jackson, Patti Cobb, and Turlough O'Carolan.

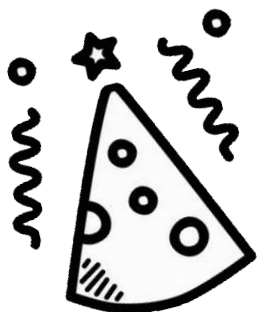

The dances will be mostly English, often at an intermediate level. There will be at least one Contra, and waltzes from 7:30-8:00 (including one choreographed waltz). Since not all the dances are completely familiar, there will be two chances to preview the more challenging ones:

Palo Alto 2nd Friday Regency Dance, St. Marks Episcopal, November 8, 8:00 pm

Palo Alto Friday English, Florence at University, November 15, 8:00 pm

(Cake will be provided—guests are welcome to bring other refreshments to share.)

See bacds.org/alansbb for program notes

Happy Birthday
